With more and more families presenting with two or more children with autism, this revolutionary treatment method in autism is transforming the lives of these autistic children and their families. Not only that, this approach is healing the lives of the entire family, thus being the FIRST, scientifically proven healing approach in autism that is truly (W) Holistic in every sense of the term. This is a win-win situation for all, as one can see the RESULTS of this path-breaking treatment in autism, right from Day ONE.

The Problem

While it is known that there is a “risk” of another child with autism being born in a family where the parents already have one child with autism, the actual statistics for the same is lacking. This article is inspired by my experience in healing children with autism in families with more than one child with autism.

Autism Treatment Approach

The healing method that was applied was Intent Healing™ that is based on Applied Energy Medicine and Applied Intentional Epigenetics. One can know more details about the same by perusing these articles on the scientific basis of the same and the case reports of successfully healed cases here: <http://www.intenthealing.com/blog/> and in this online course on ‘The Energy Basis of Autism and the Solution’, where the Testimonials and the Evidence of successfully healed cases of Autism, in line with EBM (Evidence Based Medicine) applying Intent Healing™ is available here: <http://authenticautismsolutions.usfedora.com>

The treatment method applied was as follows:

- 1. Energy assessments of both parents and the autistic children: The energy patterns of the parents and the children were assessed over two days and two nights and the reports shared with the parents. This helps in understanding the underlying specific causes for the symptoms of autism seen in each child with autism, which was unique to each child.
- 2. Individual healing sessions with each parent: These sessions were done over skype and as Remote Healing sessions timed according to the time zones where the parents lived. Intent Healing™ energies were channeled in the sessions and the individual parents’ energies were re-aligned first.
- 3. Individual sessions for each child: These sessions were done as Remote Healing sessions while each child was sleeping in bed at different times of the night. In some cases the sessions were done for one child and once the symptoms disappeared in that child the sessions were done for the other child who had autism and then the third child after that. In some cases with two children with autism the sessions were done on the same day at different timings and improvements in the symptoms in both the children with each session were noted and documented till complete disappearance of all the symptoms was achieved.

Results

- 1. In all the cases improvements of the symptoms in the children were seen right from the very FIRST session.
- 2. With consecutive sessions, PROGRESSIVE improvements in the symptoms were seen and documented in both the children with autism in the cases where the families had two children with autism and those families with more than two children with autism, the improvements were seen in ALL the autistic children.
- 3. In ALL the cases of families with two or more than two children with autism, 70-80% of the limiting symptoms of autism in each child disappeared over a span of 20-30 days were the sessions were done on consecutive days with no break in between. In families where the sessions were done for each child one after the other (doing the sessions for one child only first till the symptoms disappeared and then moving on to the next child and so on), the time period for recovery was correspondingly longer due to the logistics involved.
- 4. The ENTIRE FAMILY including the parents got healed in the process. By this I mean the physical well-being of the parents improved and they had more energy to devote to their individual creative pursuits and careers and were able to see progress in ALL aspects of their lives individually, as well as collectively, as a family.

How Does This Work?

In order to understand the specifics of Intent Healing™ and Remote Healing and the science behind the same, it is recommended to read the following two articles here: <http://intenthealing.com/blog/wp-content/uploads/2015/05/Global-Journal-Case-Report-Autism-Healing.pdf> and <http://mcmcd.us/dart/abstract/638/ijacr> and go through my interview (audio or transcript) on ‘How To Heal Autism And ADHD in 30 Days’ here: <http://www.sowjanya.in>

In short, the science behind Applied Energy Medicine and Applied Intentional Epigenetics is from all these cutting edge scientific disciplines that are based on EBM: Neuroscience, Quantum Physics, Epigenetics, Evolutionary Biology, Neurocardiology, Psychoneuroimmunology and Neurogastroenterology.

Conclusions

Intent Healing™ Remote Healing method of healing autism is the game-changer in healing children with autism in families with more two or more children with autism. This is a Win-Win Solution for all as it saves time, energy, money and other resources for these families unnecessarily struggling with these autistic children. This is the ONLY autism treatment method that heals the entire family. The RESULTS as improvements of the symptoms in the autistic children can be seen right from Day One of doing the sessions. This is the long-term solution for Autism that can be accessed by any family with children with autism, from anywhere in the world. More information is available through <http://www.sowjanya.in>.
